By permission of your Mr W. Corcoran we have this day forwarded from Albany per Penn Rail Road Two boxes of Statuary marked to your address. No 2 containing the bust of Washington weighing 318 pounds and No 1 the pedestal weighing 257 pounds which you will please receive and take charge of on arrival. We have given instructions to pay the freight in advance and you will please advise us of any further expenses.

We have not had time to get the Rail Road receipt, but fearing the risk of allowing it to remain at the Rail Road depot, we hasten to advise you of the shipment.

Yours Very Respectfully

My Dear Sir,

I received your favor of the 22nd and am very glad that you were pleased with the photograph which I sent to you.

The parcel of photographs for the Museum was received this morning, - the copy of the Zolotare will probably be delivered tomorrow.

These will be acknowledged formally, - as soon as possible our new photographs shall be sent for the Fawcett Gallery.

This exchange is, I assure you, most pleasing and acceptable to us.

Yours very truly
Thos Mundy

Mr MacLeod

I have your

letter,

I think we have plenty room in our gallery not to purchase any thing to fill up
a place more - if
a good thing of important merit is to be found any where we should get it - not otherwise
in a few years our "rooms"
will be want of Room,
you will remember
I went through the

Louvre - Vatican &
British Museum
many times and select
- the best thing,
if I had omitted any
- thing and certainly I may have done so that is important & fine and should get it - but I think not otherwise have we not already an excellent collection of Bruts? - I think
we have and a good
many of them -
Certainly if you know
in the Louvre any Bruts

of remarkable importance and can order it from
M. Lucas - but you must remember they have many these not
worth our considering,
and that would be no
addition whatever to us - There is no
list, however and
can afford to choose
any thing unless we know all about it.

Can't you get
size & price of both the Milwaukee & Roxbury copies -

Dear Sir,

I am glad to inform you that I have forwarded to yourself 8 cases containing your kind order, with the exception of the Bust of "Junius Brutus," but I have sent you a beautiful Bust of "Sophonius Serenus" which I sell at £30^{/-}. This will balance the "Junius Brutus."

The reason that I have not sent the "Junius Brutus" is that I have no mould of this Bust and I hope you will be pleased with the exchange as "Sophonius Serenus" is a beautiful Bust as you will see

Trusting you will
